SQUAR MILNER

is pleased to announce the addition of our Los Angeles Office.

and the addition of

Robert A. Rivero Managing Partner, Los Angeles

Robert A. Rivero is the Managing Partner of the Los Angeles office of Squar Milner. He has extensive experience serving both domestically and internationally as an audit partner working with companies in the manufacturing, retail, distribution, non-profit, health care and professional services industries.

Mr. Rivero has almost 40 years of experience in public accounting. Prior to joining Squar Milner, he owned a consulting firm where he served as a business advisor to firms of varying sizes with headquarters located both domestically as well as overseas. He started his accounting career with KPMG, where he remained for 34 years. He served as a Partner in Charge for 22 of those years managing eight different practice units, including domestic posts in New York, Miami and Los Angeles and was also the Managing Partner of KPMG's Colombia and Latin America practice.

Squar Milner has the distinction of being one of the nation's top 100 accounting and advisory firms as well as one of the largest independent firms in California. With offices in Los Angeles, Newport Beach and San Diego, there are over 200 people to serve you.
